(Detroit- January 30, 2012) MotorCity Casino Hotel is proud to host the 2012 MOBSTEEL Annual Autorama After Party at Sound Board on Friday, February 24 at 9:00pm.

Mobsteel starts with Detroit's finest vintage luxury cars and transforms them into menacing street machines with some of the most state-of-the-art technology currently available. They build cars that are a part of American history using vintage Detroit steel versus fiberglass repro; it's steel with soul and a story. The blood, sweat, and tears of their family and friends are in the motors, frames, and bodies of every vehicle they create.

Join Mobsteel, their family and friends, for a night of entertainment, which will feature Detroit's own Ty Stone and The Truth, and Michigan favorite Taddy Porter.

Ty Stone and The Truth, a soulful and southern rock group, opened for Kid Rock on the first leg of his "Born Free" tour in 2011. Ty has also released a new music video off his debut album American Style "Anywhere's Better." This is Ty's first music video, and it was filmed right here in Detroit. In addition to the typical Motor City sights and sounds featured in the video, Kid Rock and Uncle Kracker can both be spotted in the video.

Taddy Porter is an American rock band that knows how to live in a groove, emote feeling, and draw in all those who encounter their passion to create timeless and undeniable rock songs. The band describes its sound as a mix of classic rock and blues in a modern rock setting.
