MotorCity Casino Hotel
Proudly Welcomes
Anthony Hamilton
Sound Board
June 1, 2017

(Detroit – November 7, 2016) MotorCity Casino Hotel is proud to welcome Anthony Hamilton to Sound Board on Friday, June 1 at 8:00 p.m. Opening for Hamilton is Collective Peace.

Anthony Hamilton is a Grammy Award-winning R&B singer-songwriter, and record producer who rose to fame with his platinum-selling second studio album Comin' from Where I'm From (2003), which featured the title track single "Comin' from Where I'm From" and the follow-up "Charlene."

Hamilton has earned several Grammy nominations, and won in 2009 for best traditional R&B vocal performance for his duet with Al Green on "You've Got The Love I Need." He has also lent his vocals to a variety of talent, including Nas, Rick Ross, Carlos Santana, Jill Scott, Tupac, and Al Green. His first album in over five years, What I'm Feelin', was released via RCA Records on March 25, 2016.

Collective Peace started out as a spontaneous group that united for one show, but over the last few years they have morphed into one of the hottest soul fusion bands in Detroit. Infused with a blend of electrifying melodies, the band meshes several genres into one major sound. From the sultry vocals to the harmonious strings of the violin, Collective Peace is spinning the musical movement into a new direction.
