11-time Grammy-nominated singer/songwriter Jamey Johnson is "one of the greatest country singers of our time," according to The Washington Post. In addition, Johnson won two Song of the Year Awards, for "Give It Away" and "In Color," both from the Academy of Country Music and the Country Music Association. Johnson has received tremendous praise from The New York Times, Rolling Stone, The Wall Street Journal, and other publications, many hailing his albums as masterpieces.

In 2013, Nashville Scene's 13th Annual Country Music Critics' Poll named Living for a Song: A Tribute to Hank Cochran the year's best album.
