JAMES KRYGOWSKI APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF SECURITY AT MOTORCITY CASINO HOTEL

DETROIT, November 19, 2012 – James Krygowski was recently appointed the director of security at MotorCity Casino Hotel. In his new role, Krygowski will be responsible for managing the overall security measures of both the hotel and casino.

Prior to his current position, Krygowski served as the security manager at MotorCity Casino Hotel, where he was responsible for supervising a variety of security procedures. His responsibilities included contact with the Detroit Police Department, Michigan State Police and Michigan Gaming Control Board members, safe transportation of all valuable content on and off property, and constant communication with all internal departments. Prior to joining MotorCity Casino Hotel, Krygowski served as the security supervisor of Detroit-based Olympia Entertainment.

“After more than a decade with the company, Jim has proven himself time and time again to be a valuable resource in our on-going security strategy. His extensive experience in the industry is a tremendous asset when setting out to maintain a safe and fun environment for our patrons,” said MotorCity Casino Hotel CFO and Senior Vice President of Finance & Administration Bruce Dall.

Krygowski earned his Bachelor’s degree in social science from the Madonna University and his Associate’s degree in criminal justice from Henry Ford Community College. Actively involved in the community, he is a member of the Downtown Detroit Partnership, the American Legion and frequently volunteers with the Disabled American Veterans.
