MotorCity Casino Hotel Is Proud to Welcome
Ledisi
wsg. Raheem DeVaughn & Leela James
Sound Board
March 13, 2015

(Detroit – December 10, 2014) MotorCity Casino Hotel is proud to welcome Ledisi with special guests Raheem DeVaughn and Leela James to Sound Board on Friday, March 13, 2015 at 8:00 p.m.

American R&B and jazz recording artist, songwriter, and actress, Ledisi released the critically acclaimed Soulsinger in January 2000. "Papa Loved to Love Me" is one of the CD's most riveting and controversial tracks. Her third studio album, Lost & Found, was released in 2007. Two of its singles, "Alright" and "In the Morning", reached Billboard's Top 50 Hot R&B/Hip-Hop and a pair of Grammy nominations followed. The appropriately titled Turn Me Loose came in 2009 and featured collaborations with Jimmy Jam, Terry Lewis, and Raphael Saadiq. Her most popular disc, it topped Billboard's R&B Albums chart and resulted in another pair of Grammy nominations. Pieces of Me followed in 2011, debuting at number eight on the Billboard 200. "Like This," a song from Ledisi's sixth album, The Truth, earned a 2015 Grammy nomination for best R&B performance. To learn more, visit www.ledisi.com.

With A Place Called Loveland, Raheem DeVaughn is an artist able to make music on his own terms as an independent artist. DeVaughn embraces the global theme while bringing his heart and soul to his latest work of aural art. To learn more, visit raheemdevaughn.com.

Leela James is an acclaimed recording artist with an authentic voice that's timeless. James' studio album, Fall For You, is in stores now. For more information visit www.leelajames.com.
